Dear Melanie:

Per our telephone conversation and your office communication summary, I revised claims. In this envelope only revised claims are enclosed and other parts of the patent have not been changed so they are not included in this mail.

I agree with your comments on my patent. As I told you in our phone conversation, I am writing this patent by myself and I am not quite familiar with patent law as patent lawyer does. I know my invention is unique, but I have problem to have right patentable words in the claims. I would appreciate if you write claims for my patent if you think my claims are still not right.

Sincerely yours

Suyue Qian
